

International Day of Pink

On April 14th people from all over the world will celebrate the third annual International Day of Pink. I am proud to join in this celebration and proud that this movement began in my home province of Nova Scotia when two students from a high school in Cambridge took a stand against bullying in their school.

I believe Nova Scotia is an open, welcoming society where diversity is not just accepted, but celebrated. Celebrating the Day of Pink will help inspire all Nova Scotians, and people everywhere, to be open-minded and respectful of others' differences.

On April 14th I encourage my colleagues and all Canadians to wear pink in a show of solidarity against bullying and discrimination.
